Foreign Earned Income Exclusion | Tax Year 2024

Threshold met using two supporting periods

366 / 366

366/366 = 1.000000 (100.00%)

All 366 tax-year days are covered by the union of the periods below. Each period separately meets the 330-day threshold.

Supporting qualifying periods

1. July 7, 2023 to July 6, 2024

366 calendar days • 330 recorded full foreign days • 36 recorded nonforeign days

Preparer review

No single supporting period covers the entire tax year. Form 2555 line 16 provides one period field; the preparer should review how to present multiple supporting periods. Do not combine these into a single period longer than 12 months.

Foreign tax home and broader FEIE eligibility are unverified. Recorded full foreign days are user-supplied evidence, not independent verification. Eligible income and exclusion amounts are not calculated.
