Physical Presence Test

Foreign Earned Income Exclusion | Tax Year 2025

Threshold met under declared assumptions

Tax-year coverage

351 / 365

351/365 = 0.961644

96.16% of the tax year

Foreign-day threshold

330

assumed full foreign days

330 required in 12 months

Supporting qualifying period

December 18, 2024 to December 17, 2025

365 calendar days: 330 assumed full foreign days + 35 recorded U.S. days.

Tax-year intersection: January 1 to December 17, 2025 — 351 days.

Relevant U.S. travel

U.S. visit	Days within period
May 31 to June 29, 2025	30
December 13, 2025 to January 13, 2026	5
Total	35

Only December 13–17 of the December–January visit falls within the qualifying period.

Calculation explanation

The 12-month period contains the required 330 full foreign days under the stated assumptions. Its overlap with tax year 2025 covers 351 calendar days. U.S. days within a qualifying period can count toward conditional proration, without making U.S.-source employment income foreign earned income.

Basis and limitations

Full foreign presence is assumed from January 1, 2015 through December 31, 2025, except for recorded exceptions.

Foreign tax home and broader FEIE eligibility have not been independently verified.

Eligible foreign earned income and actual exclusion amounts are not calculated.

IRS guidance distinguishes foreign-day counting, period coverage and income sourcing.

IRS physical-presence guidance IRS exclusion computation

IRM 21.8.1.3.2(9)(d) IRS foreign earned income